

The Assembly for Fremont County Idaho
Notice of Covenant of Resettlement and Reclamation

Notice to agents is notice to principals; notice to principals is notice to agents.

Preamble

Whereas, we the people of the Assembly for Fremont County Idaho (hereinafter “Assembly”) living on the land known as Fremont County (hereinafter, “County”) within the geographic borders of the free and independent republic of Idaho (hereinafter, “State”), being Idahoans by birth or choice, hereby proclaim we have returned to settle the land of this County and reclaim our rightful republican form of government.

Whereas, we claim our right to live together with our fellow living men and women in peace; to defend our unalienable rights to life, liberty, privacy, property, and the pursuit of happiness; to steward the resources of this county for the benefit of all; and to make certain agreements with other Idahoans.

Whereas, we repudiate and rescind the fraudulent incorporation and cruel conveyance of living men and women into the Sea without their knowledge or consent, and invoke the absolute Writ of Habeas Corpus to return them to their rightful standing upon the Land.

Whereas, we proclaim this fundamental maxim of law: the creator is always greater than the creation; no living man or woman is subject to the rule of any entity created by mankind without his or her full knowledge and explicit consent.

Whereas, we by right and by duty, no longer consent to be ruled by private corporations and their unknown owners who act as “government” under the pretense of law and who, for generations, have usurped our power and trespassed against our rights for their own profit.

And, whereas, we recognize the many honorable and capable men and women—our neighbors—who serve today in these corporations, and we extend our hand in friendship and partnership to pursue an orderly transition to the rightful republican form of government for us all.

Therefore, we, in peaceful and lawful assembly, serve this Notice of Covenant of Resettlement and Reclamation for the benefit in perpetuity of all people on this County.

Article I: Principles of Governance

We hereby acknowledge, adopt, and incorporate by reference herein, the enlightened and prudent principles of lawful governance as are written in the Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776; the Articles of Confederation, ratified November 15, 1777, and in force March 1, 1781; the Constitution of the United States of America 1789, including the Bill of Rights 1776-1791, and through the original article of Amendment XIII ratified March 12, 1819 and excluding all amendments thereafter; and the Constitution of the State of Idaho preamble and Article 1 (Declaration of Rights) ratified November 5, 1889, and excluding Article 1 Sections 14, Article 11 Sections 2,3,7 & 8, Article 21 Section 19 and all other Articles and Sections interpreting “citizen” or “person”, however used or capitalized, to refer to anything other than a living man or woman, among the people, in all cases.

We extend greetings to our brothers and sisters on all other counties within the state and all other states and territories of America, and will rejoice when we can again assemble as one.

Article II: Forms of Law

The Common Law jurisdiction, based on the universal principle of “do no harm” governs the interactions among living men and women and unincorporated entities on the land and territorial waterways of this County.

The Admiralty Law of the Seas and the pursuant statutes, codes, regulations, and similar rules govern only corporate vessels and never living men and women, except on the high seas and with their full knowledge and explicit consent.

Article III: Forms of Assembly

Section 1. This Covenant recognizes the inherent and unalienable right of all living men and women to peaceably assemble and establishes the Assembly for the equal benefit of all people on the County.

Section 2. This Covenant authorizes the Assembly to conduct lawful business on behalf of and administer lawful justice for the benefit of the people on this County.

Section 3. Members of the Assembly shall be called assemblymen or assemblywomen when conducting general business; shall be called jurists when serving on a common law grand or petite jury or associated function; and shall be called electors when eligible to vote on a matter.

Section 4. The minimum criteria and process for membership in the Assembly and the rules and procedures for the Assembly shall be according to bylaws ratified by a super-majority vote (hereinafter, in all cases, meaning at least two-thirds of electors) prior to the settlement date (as defined below), provided that a minimum of three (3) such electors cast votes.

Section 5. Assembly officers shall be elected by a super-majority vote of electors. All motions require a super-majority vote to be adopted.

Section 6. The Assembly established under this Covenant shall be unincorporated.

Article IV: Grand Juries

Section 1. Grand and petite juries are available to any living man, woman, boy, or girl who is harmed within the geographic borders of the County.

Section 2. All functions of the Assembly will adhere to traditions of Common Law, and will protect the unalienable rights of all people, equally, in all circumstances.

Article V: Land and Resources

Section 1. All land within the geographic borders of the County shall be described in metes and bounds. "Legal descriptions" for "lots" and "parcels" are fraudulent and must be converted to metes and bounds at the earliest practical opportunity.

Section 2. The geographic borders of the County shall be described by metes and bounds at the earliest practical opportunity.

Section 3. We declare the people on the County are common freeholders of the land and resources of the County: the water and minerals under the land to the center of the earth; the water, vegetation, living creatures, material and structures on the land, and the space above the earthly realm. This common freehold excludes, in each case, that land or resource owned directly or indirectly by living men and women as of the date this Covenant is ratified.

Section 4. We declare the living men and women on the County have dominion over this freehold (Section 3.) and shall protect and steward the same for the benefit of future living men and women on the County. To this end, the County may contract for necessary services.

Article VI: Resettlement and Reclamation

Section 1. This Covenant recognizes the forty-four (44) counties within the state extant as of November 1, 2024 (collectively, or any subset thereof numbering more than one, hereinafter, "counties").

Section 2. The resettlement and reclamation process for this County shall be implemented according to the current Idaho County Assembly De jure Roadmap, as agreed in committee by Idaho assemblymen and assemblywomen for Idaho State counties.

Section 3. The County settlement date is the date the Assembly officers autograph this Covenant and mails an original, autographed copy under protected seal through the United States Post Office to the Assembly's Archivist. This copy will be held on file, unopened, to record, by postmark, the date of this transaction. Three other original copies (total of 4 created) will be held in safekeeping by the current Assembly officers.

Section 4. As soon as an Interim Archivist for the State is elected by the currently re-inhabited counties of the State, a photo copy will be delivered through appropriate means with confirmation of receipt to back up this Assembly's creation date and Covenant.

Section 5. Following the County settlement date, the County shall be called a settled county.

Section 6. The County will cease to be a settled county if and when it adjourns sine die, assembles as an assembly less frequently than once per calendar quarter, or it has fewer than three (3) members for two consecutive calendar quarters. Assembly meetings via Internet services are considered valid.

Article VII: Delegates

Section 1. Until such time as the de facto State of Idaho, Inc. is concluded, the County may elect one interim delegate to the interim State Assembly, according to its bylaws.

Article VIII: Office of Sheriff

Section 1. This Covenant authorizes the establishment of Fremont County Office of Sheriff (hereinafter "Sheriff's Office") that shall provide for the protection of the people's unalienable rights in the entire county, whether within or without any political sub-division of the County.

Section 2. The Sheriff's Office shall offer equal protection to all living men, women, boys and girls within the county.

Section 3. The title of Sheriff shall be conferred upon the assemblyman or assemblywoman who is eligible and elected according to the bylaws.

Section 4. The Sheriff shall serve for a term of three years.

Section 5. The Sheriff shall have the power to deputize any number of living men and women who meet the qualifications for Sheriff's Deputies according to the bylaws for any lawful purpose, at any time, and for any duration.

Section 6. The methods of operation, structure, duties, and all other issues pertaining to the establishment, maintenance and function of such office shall be determined by a committee created for such purpose comprised of assemblymen or assemblywomen who are eligible according to the bylaws.

Section 7. The final proposal of such committee shall be submitted to the Assembly for deliberation, modification as required, and adoption according to the bylaws.

Article IX: Other County Offices

Section 1. The Assembly may establish other county offices, as required, to serve the needs of the people.

Section 2. The methods of operation, structure, duties and all other issues pertaining to the establishment, maintenance, and function of such offices shall be determined by one or more committees, created for such purposes, comprised of assemblymen or assemblywomen who are eligible according to the bylaws.

Section 3. The final proposal of any such committee shall be submitted to the Assembly for deliberation, modification as required, and adoption according to the bylaws.

Article X: Ratification and Amendment

Section 1. This Covenant shall be ratified by a super-majority vote of three (3) or more electors on the County.

Section 2. No part of this Covenant may be amended or removed provided that amendments for the sole purpose of clarity may be ratified by a super-majority of three (3) or more electors, the rationale for any such amendment is made clear in the text of the amendment, and any such amendment is appended to the then-extant Covenant so a complete and continuous record of its contents will be maintained.

Section 3. Date of first Assembly meeting (in which the interim, required, three (3) officers are selected and minutes are taken) will be before Mar 31, '26. Date of first public notice of Covenant (posted to Truth Social) by Mar 15, 2026.

Covenant is so ratified this 10th day of March, 2026, (the "Ratification Date") by Fremont County Assembly as affirmed:
